

Southern Climate

Critical Thinking Question A: What is the most logical order for arranging these topics in the flow chart?

- Need to import manufactured goods
- Economy based on agriculture
- Slavery
- Need for manual labor
- Ideal for farming
- Opposed to tariffs (taxes) on foreign imports
- Cotton, tobacco, rice, and indigo grown as cash crops

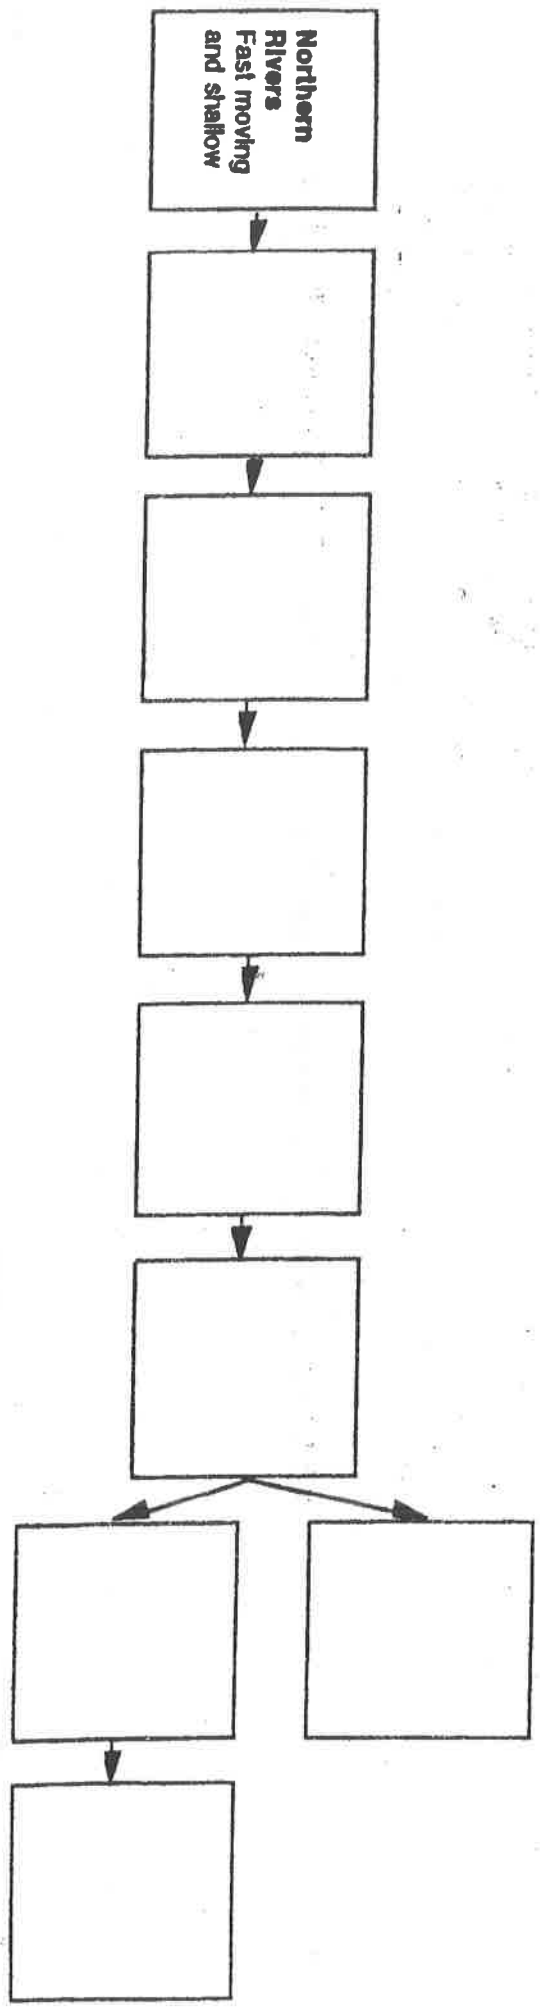

Southern Rivers

Critical Thinking Question C: What is the most logical order for arranging these topics in the flow chart?

- Few large cities
- Immigrants not drawn to South
- Less power in the House of Representatives than the North
- Easy navigation and transportation
- Population smaller than in the North
- People lived scattered along rivers
- Agriculture-based economy
- Not much manufacturing

Northern Rivers

Critical Thinking Question D: What is the most logical order for arranging these topics in the flow chart?

- Immigrants attracted to work opportunities
- People gathered in and near sea ports
- No need for slave labor
- Trade and manufacturing centers emerged
- Many cities developed
- Unnavigable
- Had more power in the House of Representatives than the South
- Large population