

APUSH 13-16 SG

- What is truly meant by Manifest Destiny
- California settlement before 1840s and after
- Dominant Indian tribes in 1830s
- Polk's expansionist policies
- William Lloyd Garrison (everything)
- Uncle Tom's Cabin
- 1852 presidential campaign
- James Gadsen
- Know-Nothing party
- Development of Republican party through different elections
- 1856 presidential election
- Dred Scott
- Lincoln (everything, go way back)
- Lincoln-Douglas debates
- Crittenden Compromise
- Lincoln's military strategy (how it developed through Civil War)
- Lincoln's political moves during the War
- How did the Confederacy fund their way? How did they get supplies?
- Generals and corresponding battles and outcomes
- Turning point of Civil War
- Battle of Gettysburg details
- The South's appeal to England
- 1864 Shenandoah Valley campaign
- 1864 presidential election
- Sherman
- Fleeing of Confederate soldiers by 1865
- Wade-Davis Bill
- Lincoln's 10% plan
- Republican Civil Rights Act in Reconstruction
- Suffrage to African American men
- Sharecropping system
- Voting groups in Alabama and Mississippi in late 1860s
- Scalawags v. carpetbaggers
- Flaws of southern Reconstruction governments
- Civil rights act of 1875
- Exodusters
- 13, 14, 15th amendments
- Post-Civil War cattle boom

- Women in the West
- Homestead Act
- Sand Creek Massacre
- Custer's Last Stand
- Dakota uprising
- Dawes Severalty Act
- Indian Rights Association

Short answer topics:

- Missouri compromise, Kansas-Nebraska Act
- Election of 1860
- Border states in the Civil War
- Grant's military strategy
- Gettysburg and Vicksburg
- Sharecropping and ex-slaves
- Homesteaders in the Great Plains
- Environmental conditions on the Plains
- Civil War effect on relations with Sioux and allies, white settlers, and the US Government
- West's impact on American imagination